

the object of his business by so insulting his customers, for it is an insult to tell a person that he is a habitual drunkard.

The Attorney-General said there is a good deal of truth in what had been said, but it was just as impracticable to put in practice the section as it would be with the words "habitual drunkard." A man who makes himself a nuisance should not be allowed to have any liquor sold to him at all. Some men are so uncontrollable when they drink that they are virtually sick people. If the section pass as it is, it renders the bar-keeper liable for selling to a man whom he does not know to have been convicted twice. The vendor of the liquor receives the notice from the Marshal and when ten or twelve men come in to drink at the bar, how is the bar tender to tell who of the lot has been convicted twice. It was simply impossible. He did not suppose that his amendment was perfect, but habitual drunkenness soon becomes known; it becomes town talk. The knowledge of a person being an habitual drunkard can easily be brought home to the bar-keeper, and a violation of the law ought to be visited with punishment. Though he (the A. G.) was not in favor of liquor selling, the Legislature have some rights. The Legislature should not frame a law that is a trap for them. A drunkard they all know, but they do not know a man that is convicted twice.

Mr. Dole said the Attorney General's theory would apply to minors and also to women if they put on men's clothing. A man who gets drunk and is convicted twice is known to the whole district.

Mr. Kaulukou thought the section of very little use in any case. The person who has been twice convicted can always get a friend to buy a bottle for him.

The section, as amended by the Attorney-General, was passed.

The House adjourned at 4:45 P. M. until 10 A. M. on Saturday.

Continuation of the consideration of the bill to regulate the sale of spirituous liquors.

Mr. Kaulukou proposed an amendment to Section 17 giving the sole power of granting licences for the sale of spirituous liquors to the Minister of the Interior.

Mr. Hitchcock moved the section be indefinitely postponed. He pointed out that as the law now stands the discretion rests with the King in Privy Council, and, in his opinion, it ought to remain so.

Mr. W. O. Smith supported the motion of the Hon. Member for Hilo. He felt sure the idea did not emanate from the Ministry. As the law now stands, it is a help to the Minister of the Interior.

Mr. Dole said the championship of free liquor had been consistent throughout this session. According to the theory of the Hon. Member for Honolulu, there was something to be proud of in being consistent in this matter. He (Mr. Dole) did not think it the best thing for the public to have free liquor. He regarded the King in Privy Council as a body that exercise some restriction in the sale of liquors. This amendment is a condemnation, and a rebuke to the King in Privy Council, and takes away the power from them, and gives it to the Minister of the Interior. He hoped that honorable body would appreciate the motive. He supported the motion to indefinitely postpone the proposed new section.

Mr. Kaulukou spoke at length in support of his motion, and moved the previous question.

The section was stricken out.

Mr. Kaulukou moved to substitute his amendment for the one just stricken out.

The ayes and noes were taken on the motion to insert, with the following result:

Ayes: Kanea, Kaulukou, Kean, Amara, Kaulia, Kaunamano, Kupihea, Nakaleka.

Noes: Neumann, Bishop, Dominis, Dr. J. Mott Smith, Kaee, Martin, Lilikalani, Baker, Kalua, Kanealii, W O Smith, Kama-kele, Gardner, Nawahi, Hitchcock, Kauwila, Kaulane, Pilipo, Godfrey Brown, Dole, Rowell, Ayes, 8; Noes 21.

Mr. Hitchcock moved to amend the last section by stating that the law shall take effect from and after the first day of October, 1884.

The Attorney-General moved that this Act take effect from and after the date of its approval. Carried.

Bill passed as a whole, and was ordered to be engrossed, and read a third time on Friday next.

Governor Dominis reported that it had pleased His Majesty to sign the following bills:

1. A bill to amend Chapter 35 of the Penal Code, relating to gambling.

2. A bill relating to challenging jurors.

3. A bill relating to the jurisdiction of Police Justices in cases of assault on public officers.

4. A bill relating to the incorporation of banking companies.

5. A bill relating to the carriage of passengers, freight, &c.

6. A bill to amend Sections 1006 and 1007 of the Civil Code, relating to appeals.

7. A bill to amend Section 4, Chapter 62, of the Penal Code.

8. A bill to provide for the appointment of road Supervisors in chief in different islands.

9. A bill to amend Section 34 of the Session Laws of 1872, relating to the diseases amongst animals.

Consideration of a bill to define the number of hours to constitute a day's labor in contracts for labor.

Mr. Dole moved it be indefinitely postponed. This bill interferes with the rights of an individual. It tries to prevent any laborer from making contracts for more than ten hours per day. If a man wishes to work longer hours he ought to be allowed to do so.

Bill indefinitely postponed.

Consideration of a proposed amendment to Article 20 of the Constitution.

Mr. Kaulukou moved the bill be indefinitely postponed.

The ayes and noes were taken, on motion, as follows:

Ayes: Gibson, Neumann, Kaee, Kanoo, Walker, Kaulukou, Lilikalani, Baker, Amara, Kaulia, Aholo, Kamakele, Gardner, Nahunu, Kaunamano, Palohau, Kupihea, Nakaleka.

Noes: Bishop, Wilder, Isenberg, J. Mott Smith, Widemann, Frank Brown, Richardson, Kanealii, W O Smith, Nawahi, Hitchcock, Kauwila, Kaulane, Godfrey Brown, Dole, Rowell, Ayes, 18; Noes, 18.

It being a tie vote, the President cast his vote with the "Noes."

The ayes and noes were again taken on the passage of the bill, when a similar vote took place—19 ayes and 19 noes—the names being reversed.

The President voted with the ayes, and the bill passed to engrossment. Ordered to be read a third time on Friday next.

Consideration of a bill to make further and better provision for the prevention of cruelty to animals.

Mr. W. O. Smith moved it be considered section by section. Carried.

After the passage of these first sections, the House adjourned until 10 A. M. Tuesday.
